What is the ICMPD and why are we organizing against it?

On October 21–22, the International Centre for Migration Policy Development (ICMPD) is hosting its 10th annual Vienna Migration Conference. Each year, politicians, actors from the (European) migration and border regime, and scientific “experts” meet there to shape Europe’s migration policies behind closed doors.

The ICMPD is an ideological think tank, which stands behind many of the authoritarian migration policies implemented within Europe in recent years.

This year, we want to take the 10th anniversary of the conference as an opportunity to take action together, and show that we will not stay silent as Fortress Europe continues to expand!
